

FEES

If an applicant intends to charge fees for the products or services of students or instructors to third parties, please provide information below detailing the reasons why such services or production is necessary to provide an adequate experience in the area of instruction that is offered. Indicate below a schedule of such fees. (For example, if a school offers a massage therapy service to a third party for a fee.)

If no such fees are charged, mark here .