ALLOWABLE DEDUCTIONS/ADJUSTMENTS

Detailed definitions of allowable deductions and adjustments are outlined below. This information can be found in Connecticut General Statutes Section 10a-22u, and Regulations of State Agencies Section 10a-22x-2.

- A. Registration and/or application fees: only those receipts classified as nonrefundable and stated as such on the application form, enrollment agreement and/or in approved catalogs or supplemental documents and which are not applied to tuition are deductible.

Registration and Application Fees, which are applied to tuition, must be reported under Part A, Line 1.

Correspondence/home-study schools calculate tuition/fees only for Connecticut residents enrolled in programs.

- B. Enrichment course tuition and fees: only receipts for those courses that are non-occupational, avocational, and self-improvement in nature are deductible.
- C. Supplies and equipment fees: only those receipts that are for expendable supplies and non-consumable equipment which become the property of the student and are listed separately from tuition fees on the enrollment agreement and/or other supplemental documents are deductible.
- D. Room and board fees: only those receipts that are paid by the student to the school during his/her attendance and are listed as such on the enrollment agreement and/or in other supplemental documents are deductible.
- E. Contractual refunds: only those monies that are refunded by a school to students or to persons who have paid on behalf of students who have not completed their instruction or training as provided for in the enrollment contract agreement are deductible.
- F. Other deductions and adjustments: only those as listed on the post-secondary Career Schools Application (page 32) that have been approved by the Executive Director of the Office of Higher Education are deductible.
