Go to the Head of the Class...

with a Minority Teacher Incentive Grant

If you are a college student interested in teaching and a member of a minority group, the State of Connecticut can help you with education costs in return for teaching in a Connecticut public school.

The Minority Teacher Incentive Grant Program provides up to $5,000 a year for the final two years of full-time study to minority undergraduates enrolled in a Connecticut teacher preparation program. The program also provides eligible students with up to $2,500 in yearly stipends for up to four years of teaching in a Connecticut public elementary or secondary school.

To qualify, you must:

- be a full-time college junior or senior of African American, Hispanic/Latino, Asian American or Native American heritage.

- be nominated by an Education Dean (or appropriate official) at whichever participating college you attend.
- begin teaching in a Connecticut public school within 16 months of graduation to receive the annual stipend.

To apply, submit a completed nomination form (see reverse side or download from www.ctohe.org/mtip). For questions, please contact your Education Dean listed below or Lynne Goodwin of the Office of Higher Education at 860/947-1855 or mtip@ctohe.org.
